

Coach at the level of construction.

Move beyond techniques, scripts and better questions. Learn to hear how clients construct meaning, emotion, language, choice and response in real time.

01

Cognitive Intentions

Spot the hidden thinking patterns beneath client language.

02

Identity Compass

Use profiling as a doorway into developmental awareness.

03

Real-Time Modelling

Model the client's construction as it emerges live.

A developmental upgrade for coaches

For experienced coaches, NLP practitioners, coach supervisors, HR, L&D and OD professionals who want to move beyond tools and into the structure of human construction.

- Hear the architecture beneath the story
- Intervene at the level of awareness, not only behaviour
- Build coaching cultures through developmental capacity
